Our Schools and Colleges—The Univer-sity Alumni Society—The No-groes—Etc.

From an Occasional Correspondent.]
NASHVILLE, June 13.—This has been an interesting week in literary circles in this city. The Ward female school had its commencement exercises, which were well attended and were very entertain-ing. This school has deservedly great character. The Nashville university commencement took piace at the Capitol last Thursday night. Degrees were conferred upon several very promising young men, among them a grandson of John C. Calhoun, who has the same name that the distinguished Carolinian had, and who is said to recemble him yers much, having the same left-hand had, and who is said to resemble him very much, having the same left-hand gesture for which Mr. Cathoun was so remarkable. The alumni society of this institution, the pride of Tennessee, met on Friday and adopted some very strong resolutions, and took steps toward increasing the endowment of the venerable university, which numbers among its graduates such men as Hons. John Mr. Haie moved to strike out the third section of the bill, which provides for the paying of some two millions of dollars to the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, in conformity with the awards made by the senate in 1859, as a price for some ten million acree of land in Mississippi, ceded by these Indians to the United States in 1830.

Mr. Garfield, chairman of the committee on appropriations, sustained the Andrew Ewing, Abednego Stephens, and William B. Turley, of Tennessee; Judge William Yerger, of Mississippi; Judge A. J. Walker, chlef-justice of Alabama, and various others scarcely less distinguished. The object of the alumni is to make if equal in every respect to any university in the south, not excepting the tion bill. He reminded the committee that this was the last of twelve regular appropriation bills, and that he argued in support of his motion to strike out the section, as when narrowed down it was an appropriation to pay over two milliou three hundred thousand dollars to two men, Peter P. Pitchlynn and Peter Folsom, living in the City of Washington, and neither of whom, he presumed, had seen either of their tribes within the last two years. His objection to it was two-fold: First, that it was not certain to be paid; and second it was proposed to pay into the hands of these men instead of directly to the Choctaw and Chickasaw nations. I predict that if the appropriation goes as provided in the section into the hands of these two men there will be in less than two years a great national scandal growing out of it.

It will be found that the Indians have not got one hundred thousand dollars of it, or if that be not so there will be around and about Washington, not in the halls of congress, I thank God, the most hungry and disappointed

Senator Carpenter opposed the amendment, and said that under the present law a man could follow another to any State and sue in a State court.
